India can't be inward-looking and disallow imports: FM

TEAM EFFORT. Sitharaman asks exporters to constantly engage with the govt and give inputs

Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman on Wednesday said that discouraging imports in the name of Atmanirbhar Bharat (self-reliant India) is not a good idea as India still needs imported inputs.

She also emphasised that Budget ensured a multiplier effect for growth momentum in all sectors.

ctors. Sitharaman addressed two in-Sitharaman addressed two industry chambers — Assocham and PHDCCI — in Delhi as part of her post-Budget interactions. Responding to queries at the Assocham meet, she said the changes abroad — recession or the slowing economy — are going to be a challenge for Indian exporters. So, "Indian exporters will have to be far more receptive to what is happening there or even foresee how that will pan

PALL IN EXPORT, IMPORT
This remark came on a day when the Commerce & Industry Ministry reported a 6.5 per cent and 3.5 per cent decline in merchandise exports and imports, respectively, during January
over last January.
She also took on those who are advocating discouraging or banning imports from particular countries. "We cannot really be inward-looking, saying Aatmanithhar and therefore won't would appeal to the industry to be lot more critical of your own assessment of what is happening in the market, both Indian and abroad, and keep us informed, saying "you don't have to worry about particular thing because this is where it is or you need to be worried about a particular thing because that is going to flood us". Constant input to the government will help us," she said.

Earlier, in her address to PHDCCI she said the Centre is government will help us," she said.

Earlier, in her address to PHDCCI, she said the Centre is ensuring that the public expenditure continues to grow to have a desired multiplier effect on all the sectors as per the directions set by the Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "This is the first time in many years that the capital expenditure has reached a double-digit amount, making it the clear focus of this Budget," she said.

She also stated that capital ex-benefit a range of core indus-tries, making it an effective way to ensure that money is directed to the right places and generate multiplier effects.

However, "we must also ensure that we take care of those who need it most. As such, we will continue with the free food programme throughout this year, ensuring that no family is left without food. In addition to inclusion, our major focus should be on Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), which are the backbone of the Indian economy and important job cre-

Sitharaman also informed that the Centre is collaborating with the States, as well as the Tier III administrations, such as the panchayats or ward-level administrations, to ensure that MSME priorities remain at the top of the agenda.

MCA extends time for filing 45 e-forms without extra fee

In what could be some relief for cor-porates facing glitches with version 3 of MCA 21, the Corporate Affairs Ministry (MCA) has decided to allow further 15 days time to file 45 com-pany e-forms launched on January 23.

pany e-forms launched on January 23.

These forms can now be filed by the stakeholders within the added 15 days window without additional fee, MCA said in a recent circular.

Also, MCA has now permitted corporates to file the return of allotment (Form PAS-3) without payment of additional fees for 15 days.

It maybe recalled that the due date for filing of Form PAS-03 fell between January 20 and February 6. The filing of this form was closed in version 2 on January 23.

The latest MCA move to give an additional window of 15 days for filing the forms comes in the backdrop of practical difficulties being faced by stakeholders during the transition

MCA has permitted corporates to file the return of allotment (Form PAS-3) without payment of additional fees for 15 days period from version 2 to version 3 on filing of forms required to be submitted under the Companies Act 2013.

SPECIAL TEAM
The issues, concerns and technical glitches faced by stakeholders have come to the notice of Finance and Corporate Affairs Minister Nirmala Sitharaman, who on Tuesday instructed the MCA to set up a special team to look into the public grievances as regards the MCA21 portal on priority. It maybe recalled that MCA had on August 31 last year launched the first set of 9 company forms under MCA21 V3.0. The second set of 56 forms, including ten incorporation-related forms were launched on January 23 this year.

20 Russian banks open rupee vostro accounts for trade with India

Twenty Russian banks, in-cluding Gazprom, Rosbank, Tinkoff Bank, Centro Credit Bank and Credit Bank of Mo-scow, have opened their rupee vostro accounts with author-ised dealer banks in India for enabling rupee trade between the two countries, but the mechanism is yet to take off in a big way, officials have said. All Indian banks have been asked to appoint nodal of-ficers to sort out issues faced by exporters in carrying out

INDIAN BANKS

INDIAN BANKS
The Indian banks that are part of the process include UCO Bank, Union Bank of India, SBI, IDBI, Indian Bank, Axis Bank, Bank of Baroda and PNB. In July 2022, the RBI allowed international trade in rupees creating the possibility of doing business with Russia in rupees and, in the process, bypass the sanctions imposed to the West of the West of Moscow. The sanctions were imposed following Russia's attack on Ukraine in February 2022.
India wants to secure its oil trade with Russia as its import of discounted crude from the country has risen significantly

However, since the EU has been increasingly bringing more Russian banks under sanctions, cutting them off from the SWIFT messaging system that connects banks across the globe, India and Russia are both interested in operationalising the alternative rupee trade mechanism.

PAY FOR RUSSIAN OIL
The rupee trade mechanism will allow India to pay for Russian oil and fertilisers in rupee which can be then used by Russian companies to pay for their imports from India or invest in the country.
"This is a new initiative and there are teething troubles," Sarangi said, adding that issues such as exchange rate mechanism and repatriation of money needed to be settled.
